The authors regret the following errors in their text:

Abstract line 15: “increased visceral sensitivity” should be “decreased visceral sensitivity”.

RESULTS, Section Title: “Antibiotic treatment increased visceral sensitivity” should say “Antibiotic treatment decreased visceral sensitivity”.

Accompanying results description line 2: “displayed visceral hypersensitivity” should say “displayed visceral hyposensitivity”.

The authors would like to apologize for any inconvenience caused.
